

The Workers' Educational Association summer 2015 lecture programme to be held in the Vestry, Bethania Chapel, Cornish Place, Llanelli at 2.00pm – 4.00pm on Thursdays

Thursday
11th June
2015

The role of the supernatural in the First Crusade

Colin Wheldon James,
Community Outreach Group, The Historical Association

Thursday
25th June
2015

Casgliad y Werin, Cymru/ the People's Collection Wales: a digital archive of Wales and its people

Hazel Thomas, National Library of Wales

Thursday
9th July
2015

Recent archaeological discoveries on Gower

Peter Francis, voluntary warden, Natural Resources Wales and the Glamorgan-Gwent Archaeological Trust

Thursday
23rd July
2015

A little night music: a brief history of the serenade

Chris Weeks,
Dept. of Continuing Education (DACE), Swansea University

These lectures will take place in an informal atmosphere – 40 minutes or so for the lecture, then a break for tea/coffee and biscuits, and then a Question and Answer session with, we hope, plenty of discussion of the topic in question

For more information
contact:

WEA Cymru Llanelli
Acting Chairman Phil Elias:
01792 881816